RCI Announces 2010 Document Competition Winners

Raleigh, NC -- RCI, Inc., announced the winners of its 2010 Document Competition Sunday, March 28, 2010, at an awards luncheon during the 25th RCI International Convention & Trade Show in Orlando, Florida.

The RCI Document Competition is an annual event organized to recognize members' excellence in roofing, waterproofing, and exterior wall construction project documentation. All entries were on display at the RCI International Trade Show, March 27-28, 2010.

The following individuals received first place honors:

For excellence in the Report Writing category, first place was awarded to Jeffrey Levine, Levine & Company Inc., for the entry on Gilman Hall, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, MD.

For excellence in the Small Roofing/Waterproofing/Exterior Wall Project Documents category, for construction valued at $500,000 or less, first place was awarded to Jeffrey Levine, Levine & Company Inc., for the entry on Bryn Athyn Cathedral, Bryn Athyn, PA.

For excellence in the Large Roofing/Waterproofing/Exterior Wall Project Documents category, for construction valued greater than $500,000, first place was awarded to Donald Kilpatrick, INSPEC Inc., for the entry on University of Chicago Lab Schools, Chicago, IL.

All winning entries will be recognized in an upcoming issue of Interface, RCI's monthly technical journal. A summary of the competition's first, second, and third place winners from each category will be featured.

For more information, contact RCI at 800-828-1902 or rci@rci-online.org.
